Our world needs people like you to tip these statistical scales the other way

In your relationship, do you and your life-partner have great communication, fun, passion, and happiness everyday? We hope this is the case. Are you consciously working to enhance it more?

From our research, here is what many people say about their mate, or their relationship:

I'm so busy. I just don't have time to sit and talk about our relationship!

We used to have many common interests. But something has changed. We don't connect anymore.

We haven't been away, just the two of us, for a long, long time. We need a break.

It is such a hassle to come to an agreement on anything. We argue continually and I hate it.

We always do things the same way. We are stuck in a rut and can't get out of it.

I bust my butt around here to keep things in order and I'm working a full-time job. He doesn't seem to notice.

She doesn't understand how important this is to me.

I'm afraid to voice my opinion. Every time I do, I'm made out to be wrong.

We are always so busy with other things that we rarely take time to do fun stuff together.

I don't want to be "fixed," I just want him to listen to me.

I don't know where we are going as a couple. We seem to be on different tracks.

Do any of these things sound or feel familiar to you?

The awareness of these things can be just the motivation you need to kick-start your romance again.

“Since our Couple’s Weekend with Dan and Carol, we are more committed to each other. We honor our promises, communicate more effectively and our relationship has once again grown beyond our expectations. Dan and Carol model the ‘relationship skills’ they teach others... joyfully, gently, and with passion.”

Here’s why we want to share this with you?

We’ve been married for 25 years, but not always happily married. We went through some nasty, disrespectful, hurtful times. We observed and heard about many couples who were struggling through separations and divorce. But we knew in our hearts it didn’t have to be that way for us. We had way too much to lose by choosing the status quo, or going our separate ways.

We knew couples who had great relationships and we were determined to have one of those great relationships too. Thank goodness we were aware enough to make some new choices and to ratchet our relationship skyward. And with our expanding awareness, it keeps getting better every day.

We designed this seminar because we want you to have what we have – or something much more wonderful. We’re giving you tools that we use – and they work, if you’re committed enough to use them.

Besides that, you deserve to have a fabulous relationship, don’t you?

You may be thinking,
“BUT our relationship is just fine.”

Or, “We’re fairly new in our relationship BUT we already have it figured out.”

Or, “Yeah, we sure could use some help, BUT it’s probably too late.”

Or, “I want to do this, BUT my partner doesn’t.”

Hey, we are not attached to you taking our seminar.

We are concerned that you will choose to do nothing, hoping that your partner will finally get-it-together, or the economy will improve, or you’ll get the perfect job, or perfect health, or your “Fairy Godmother” will wave her magic wand, and “Poof,” your relationship will instantly improve and you’ll live happily ever-after.

Like us, you’ve got way too much to lose to leave your future to chance.

Here’s the deal:

In a relationship, just like many areas of life, many people tend to make things more difficult than they really are. Life can be much simpler by choosing to come back to the basics.

At Relationship Rendezvous, you will gain the basic tools to consciously build the foundational components of love, trust, honesty, and respect, which foster effective communication. As a couple, you will design your relationship to be just the way you want it.

Here’s what will happen:

We’ll introduce some models, techniques, and processes.

We’ll open up discussions about things you may not have talked about recently (or at all).

We’ll share some great personal stories as examples.

We’ll give you opportunities to practice new ways of thinking, speaking, listening, and doing.

Most of the time it will be you and your partner, working together to enhance the foundation of your relationship.

You can count on us to encourage, support, and guide you in a safe, caring, loving way.

And you’ll have lots of time for just the two of you – for whatever you choose to do.

Relationship Rendezvous: A Romantic Retreat For You Two is definitely for you if you want to eliminate or reduce discontent, heartache, and petty grievances. Wouldn't you rather ignite the spark of greater love, intimacy, and connection with your partner?

"I learned: I always have a choice – to love or not-love; what I focus on; I attract; its OK for me to have "me" time and not feel guilty about it; open communication for us will open the doors to so many wonderful opportunities to experience together, and; I can let go of the past, learn a lesson from past mistakes, and look forward to creating and living our vision together."

Shauna Walsh,

Sounds good, doesn't it? And we'd like you to join us for a life-changing weekend. But don't dawdle, we only accept 20 couples.

Consider this an "investment" in yourselves and your long-term happiness together – an investment that pays huge returns for the rest of your life.

If you are thinking, "That sounds like a lot of money," consider these intangibles:

How do you put a dollar value on happiness, peace, contentment?

What value do you place on unconditional love and unquestioned friendship?

What would it be worth for you to totally trust your life-partner and to know that absolute trust was reciprocated?

How focussed and productive could you be in your career if you felt completely fulfilled in your relationship with your life-partner?

And think about these:

Imagine what it feels like now, to have the excitement, passion, and love that you felt when you first noticed the sparks between you – or what if it were much better?

Imagine what life looks like now, to see her/his radiance and magnificence, as your best friend, partner, and lover – and getting more magnificent every day.

Imagine what it will sound like now, to hear those kind loving words of endearment regularly – as a part of your daily respectful conversation.

That's exactly what Relationship Rendezvous will do for you.
